

Terms & Conditions

Once your race entry is accepted either online, by post or over the telephone we are unable to make refunds. Your entry fee is invested in the cost of staging the event, and the main costs from contractors, suppliers, administration etc are already committed well before race day. Roll over places must be requested in writing 10 days before the event takes place - changes after this will count as no-show and we will be unable to change your entry.

Refunds will not be payable if we are forced to cancel, or in any way change the event due to war, threat of war, riot, civil strife, industrial dispute, terrorist activity, natural or nuclear disaster, fire or adverse weather conditions or other circumstances amounting to force majeure.

Where possible we will look to restage the race, however with a very busy calendar and various organisational factors to consider this may not always be humanly possible.

In the unlikely event of the cancellation/postponement of sporting events for whatever reason, Mad Bull Events Ltd cannot be held responsible in any way for any monetary loss, inconvenience or any other circumstances outside of our control, including non-refundable events fees.

Each year we receive requests to transfer places from one competitor to another. But like all purchased tickets, each entry is personally registered to a specific named individual. Reallocating race numbers and amending data held on the computer system at races would require considerable administration time and we would have to significantly increase the cost of all entries to cover cost of the additional staff required. We will consider transfer on the proviso we receive both competitors details in full 10 days before the event.
